BID WEIGHS IN ON CITY'S PROPOSED STREET VENDING ORDINANCE

The Melrose Ave BID has long been opposed to food carts and other forms of street vending.

"We do not believe that such street vendors are an appropriate use within the Melrose business district," the BID wrote in a letter to Councilman Paul Koretz. "Such vendors are not fair to local businesses that must pay rent, taxes, utilities, and abide by the many regulations that are attendant to their business, including inspections. Legalization of street vending raises questions about health, safety, increased sidewalk congestion, and trash."

One of the biggest issues, of course, is the fact that the City has no realistic plan or capacity for regulating out-of-control street vending; there are an estimated 50,000 illegal street vendors currently operating in the City.

Recognizing that some Los Angeles City Council Districts may desire such vendors, the BID supports establishment of special zones or permits that are not applicable to our area – a so-called "opt-in" system.

More than 30 major cities across the nation already have strict rules regarding street vending. In Boston, for example, sidewalk vendors must obtain written permission from the owner of the building outside they wish to operate. In San Diego, sidewalk vendors are not allowed in the Gaslamp District, and in other parts of the city must operate near approved toilet and hand-washing facilities. In San Francisco, sidewalk vending is prohibited in residential areas and vendors must remain a certain distance away from existing restaurants and other facilities.

The BID will continue to push for common sense restrictions on street vending that protect our local brick and mortar businesses as well as the health and safety of our neighborhood.

If you or your business would like to see sidewalk vending more closely regulated, please contact Don Duckworth at 323.525.0840 or duckworth.donald@gmail.com.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF RILEY

The days are never boring for Riley Sherwood, our Melrose BID Security Ambassador. On any given day, rain or shine, you'll see him patrolling the BID on his bicycle, or on foot, looking for ways to assist storeowners and visitors. His presence has made a huge difference on the street in the 10 months he's been onboard.

We thought it would be interesting to give our readers a look inside his daily encounters, just to give you a taste of what's going on in the hood that needs his attention.

Naked Man Alert

A couple of months ago, a homeless man named Skeeter, well known in the area, decided to run around Melrose completely naked (not his normal mode of expression). Riley spotted him running and followed him to a spot where he could call the LAPD. When the officers arrived, they wrapped him in a blanket and gave him clothes to put on. Once dressed, they asked him to leave and he complied.

Domestic Disturbance

A few weeks ago, Riley was riding through alleys behind Lawson Fenning (6824 Melrose) at 6:30-7pm, and saw a car parked at a weird angle on the street. Two girls were in the car screaming, yelling and cussing. One had the other in a headlock, suddenly let her go and punched her in the chin. Riley tried to break up the fight but they continued screaming and throwing items all over the side street. Riley flagged a passing patrol car and the officer helped break up the fight, sending one girl to jail.

Riley will soon be called upon to testify at the girl's trial.

Three Card Monte

Melrose has recently been a mecca for hucksters to ply the oldest street hustle in the world: "Three Card Monte." Groups of men were gathering by Love Baked Wings to play the high-stakes game, sometimes losing hundreds of dollars a round. Riley spotted the gamblers and called the LAPD vice unit. They haven't been seen since.

If you need to reach Riley Sherwood, call (818) 405-2615 or send an email to melrosebidambassador@gmail.com.

MELROSE PROPERTY OWNERS ENVISION THE FUTURE

On May 4, 2017, the Melrose BID held another Property Owners Meeting at the Greenway Court Theatre (544 N Fairfax Ave). At that meeting, Don Duckworth, Melrose BID Executive Director, and Mott Smith of Civic Enterprise Associates, presented the recently-completed Melrose Future Vision Strategic Action Plan, a document that communicates the Melrose Business Improvement District Board of Directors' vision for the economic revitalization of Melrose Avenue.

The plan, which was developed by the BID, Civic Enterprise Associates, and Perkins + Will, clearly outlines a strategy for revitalization and achieving results. To craft the plan, numerous stakeholders were interviewed, both individually, online, and at Melrose BID-organized meetings. Walking surveys of Melrose's physical conditions were conducted. And several online surveys were offered, allowing stakeholders to identify challenges, opportunities, and priorities.

Available Melrose Resources to Achieve Revitalization

At no other time in history has the Melrose business district had so many resources available to apply to local priorities. These include:

- Melrose BID Property Assessment - $486,072 per year
- Melrose BID General Benefit Contribution (from City) - $31,026/yr
- On-street Parking Space Recovery - $1 to $2 Million value
- MTA Pedestrian Enhancement Grant - $4 Million value
- Mobility 2035 Plan Implementation Funds – Unknown value
- City Council Office Discretionary & Support Funds – Unknown value
- Non-Financial Resources – "Priceless"
- City Council Office (Paul Koretz) Support
- LAPD Wilshire Division Support
- Mid City West Community Council Support
- Greater Wilshire Neighborhood Council Support
- Venice 4 Square Church Homeless Task Force Success
- City approval of Melrose BID Valet Parking Program

SPORTIE LA TEAMS WITH FAIRFAX HIGH FOR SHOES

Isack Fadlon, BID Board Member and co-owner of Sportie LA, recently made kids on the Fairfax High School track team very happy! On February 16, the approximately 50-student team received a donation of new running shoes by Sportie LA and the Hoka One One shoe company. The students attended a fitting session and pizza party at Sportie LA, coordinated by Fadlon, a 1983 Fairfax High graduate, Hoka One One and Greenway Arts Alliance co-founder and executive director, and fellow BID Board member, Pierson Blaetz.

Isack if I wasn't on the board. The BID is doing good work. It's an example of how businesses in the Fairfax District and on Melrose Avenue are supporting the school."

Fadlon said he was glad to help, and is looking for other ways to continue the partnership. "I have an affinity for Fairfax High. I grew up right off Melrose," said Fadlon, who has operated Sportie LA with his sister since 1985. "This is something where a board member and a retailer reached out and gave back to the community. This is not a one-time thing. It's just the beginning."

The Greenway Arts Alliance is a nonprofit that supports programs at Fairfax High School.

According to a February 23 story by Ed Folven in the Beverly Press, Fadlon was looking for a community partner that could benefit from his connection with Hoka One One, and when Blaetz learned about it, he jumped at the opportunity.

"It's a good example of how the Melrose BID can benefit everyone on the street," Blaetz said. "I would have never met

The shoes regularly cost $100 to $150 a pair, which can be costly for families of many students at Fairfax High School. The students received the shoes in March, just in time for the beginning of the track and field season. Fadlon hopes the donation will inspire other local businesses to partner with the community. "The joy is seeing the looks on the kids' faces," Fadlon added. "[Fairfax High] Coach Cox and Pierson said it best, it's about the kids and the community."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

My wife, Sylvia, and I were out driving around the other day and had an opportunity to reflect on how great the Melrose Avenue BID area looked in comparison to other parts of the city.

Frankly, the impact of our Melrose BID services is dramatic. The Melrose BID makes an on-going effort to extend services to the homeless individuals that wander our way and, as a result, we don't have the extensive sidewalk encampments that characterize neighboring areas.

The Melrose BID Security Ambassador works 5 days per week, 8 hours per day to protect our valuable business environment. Because this service has been so well received by Melrose business and property owners, it will be extended to 7 days a week beginning January 1, 2019, after BID renewal.

We also noticed how clean and debris-free Melrose is in comparison to other nearby retail streets (see photo, left). The Melrose BID's streetscape vendor, CleanStreet, makes sure that Melrose Ave is "ready for business" at all times, which is one of the most important things a Business Improvement District can do.

We want to applaud all of you, the property owners on Melrose, that have been so instrumental in making a difference on the street we all love so much. But we also would like to urge you to approve the renewal of the BID. The continuation of the BID's services, from clean and safe to marketing, is key to our future success, especially in this time of escalating homeless conditions, rising crime and overwhelmed city services. Thanks again for all of your hard work and support and here's to more success in our future.

NO NEED FOR SPEED

Recently, Melrose made the news, not once, but twice, when speeding automobiles jumped curbs and crashed into buildings. At 6am on New Year's Day, six people were injured, three critically, after a suspected DUI driver blew a stop sign at Vista, causing a car crash with an Uber that sent one vehicle careening into 7450 Melrose Ave.

And on Wednesday December 13, 2017, a woman in an SUV was involved in a violent crash with a BMW on Melrose Avenue and Alta Vista Boulevard, where her car flipped over before slamming into 7250 Melrose. The wreck occurred around 1:30 a.m. The incident allegedly started as a hit-and-run, when the woman was followed by a vehicle that she hit earlier near Highland Avenue and Santa Monica Boulevard.

Melrose property owner *Iris has been on Melrose for over 25 years. From going to Fairfax High to running a business on Melrose, to owning a building at the corner of Melrose and Vista, she's seen it all. And, unfortunately, over the years, that includes a lot of accidents. Now, she's on a mission to try and get either a crosswalk or flashing lights installed at the intersection of Melrose and Vista St.

"Throughout the years, there have been many car accidents at the intersection of Melrose Ave & Vista," said Iris. "People don't want to have to walk blocks and blocks to get to the light. They cross in the middle of the street and it's dangerous."

"People come to Melrose to enjoy themselves, whether it's to shop, have dinner, go drinking or whatever," she continued. "They want to enjoy life, and feel safe. It's our job to protect them and find a way to slow down traffic so they can cross safely."

To that end Iris has drafted a petition that visitors and residents alike can sign to bring attention to the situation. Visit www.change.org and search for "Melrose Ave @ Vista St." She asks if you can join the 232 people who have already signed, and help get her to 500.

"A flashing light or cross walk could minimize the casualties or even prevent them," she concluded. "If the two recent accidents had happened in the middle of the day, the outcome would have been much worse. Traffic needs to be slowed down for everyone's safety."

Coverage of Dec. 13, 2017 accident

The property owner of the Lawson-Fenning building requested an additional street tree in front of his building. The BID planted a city-approved tree in accordance with the strategic action plan for the "Melrose Design District" area. The new tree minimizes root vs. sidewalk problems, optimizes the aesthetic impacts of shade and avoids consumer site view obstruction.

NO ON MEASURE

Governor Jerry Brown has done a lot for California—helping to pull our state out of recession and fighting for progress. The governor doesn't usually get involved in local issues, but Measure S poses such a threat to Los Angeles, he is endorsing our campaign against it. He's asking for you to say No to Measure S. Future of L.A. Hinges on Measure S Vote

Voters head to the polls on March 7th to cast votes on what may be the most critical election in a generation on the future course of Los Angeles. Measure S, previously referred to as the "Neighborhood Integrity Initiative", would immediately clamp down on development, with a moratorium of at least two years on projects that require plan amendments, zone changes, or adjustment to height restrictions. It would also prohibit spot zoning, and require the city to complete studies of the environmental impact of new projects rather than the developers. "The Hollywood Chamber of Commerce is strongly opposed to this measure," stressed Leron Gubler, Chamber President & CEO. "While we recognize the need to update community plans, this measure goes too far and will have a negative impact on our economy."

Support Re-election of Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell

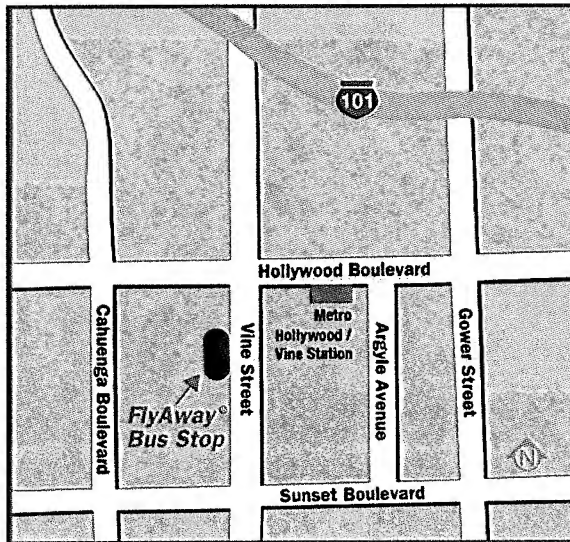

The Hollywood Chamber Political Action Committee (PAC) has endorsed Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell for re-election to represent the 13th Council District of the City of Los Angeles and strongly urges Chamber members to contribute to his election. "It would be great if Councilmember O'Farrell could be re-elected in the Primary on March 7th," said Chamber President & CEO Leron Gubler. He has been a real leader on the City Council and in Hollywood." Gubler noted that he has fought to address small business issues, bringing order to Hollywood Boulevard, supporting the arts and historic preservation, and reasonable infill development as well as finding solutions to homeless issues. In the crowded primary with several opponents, if the Councilman secures 51 percent of the vote, there would be no need for a run-off. The Chamber encourages its members to contribute to "Neighbors United to Re-Elect Mitch O'Farrell 2017", an independent expenditure campaign working for his re-election.
